Central Bank's Pre-Christmas Submission Deadlines

1st October 2019 | by Trevor Dolan

Just like the hanging of the Christmas decorations on Grafton Street seems to come earlier each year, the Central Bank of Ireland (the Central Bank) seems to release its list of pre-Christmas submission deadlines earlier and earlier each year.

The earliest of these deadlines is 11 October 2019 for UCITS and RIAIFs must when completed applications for new UCITS and RIAIFs as well as major post-authorisation items must be submitted.

Other projects that are more minor have later submission deadlines with normal QIAIF submission timelines applying until 20 December 2019.

If your Christmas wish list includes a completed fund project, please contact us for more details.
